

Roscoe C. Ringgold

December 25, 1918 - February 10, 2013

ROSCOE C. RINGGOLD, son of the late George Ringgold and Peggy Oliver, was born on December 25, 1918 in Baltimore, Maryland.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and later moved to New York City where he enjoyed spending time with his family. After years in New York City, he moved back to Baltimore in 1969. While in Baltimore, he enjoyed spending time with his brothers, sisters, cousins, nieces and nephews.

Roscoe thoroughly enjoyed taking long walks and stopping for a sweet treat at the donut shop. But most of all, he was an avid baseball fan and looked forward to spring and watching his favorite team, the Baltimore Orioles. Another one of his favorite pastimes was playing pokeno and other card games.

In 2001, Roscoe became a resident of Esters Place in Northeast Baltimore. He spent many of his days at the Hopkins Elderplus Center. While at the Center, he engaged in dancing, singing, and making others laugh. He kept a smile on his face as he greeted everyone at the Center. Every person who Roscoe encountered got a “kick out of him.”

Roscoe endured many challenges throughout his life. One of those challenges was cancer, which he bravely faced and overcame. He enjoyed the rest of his days cancer free.

After ninety-four years on God's green earth, God called His angel home to sit by His side in Heaven.

Roscoe leaves to cherish: his beloved sister, Ruth Myers; sister-in-law, Lois Ringgold; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, George Ringgold and Peggy Oliver; and siblings, Sylvetta, George, Mildred, Otho and Wallace.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
