

Rose B. Nelums

March 21, 1923 - October 16, 2001

Rose B. Nelums, daughter of the late Beatrice and Augustus Bailey, was born on March 21, in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on October 16, 2001. She was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools. Rose was a member of Our Lady o Lourdes for many years prior to joining Liberty Grace Church of God. She married Lee T. Nelums on September 14, 1944, and out of this union one daughter, Debra, was born. In addition, she also raised nine children, five boys and four girls, and cared for many other children as a foster parent throughout her life. Rose did not meet a child that she did not care for; and no one ever left her house hungry. Her church honored Rose by being named Mother of the Church. She was a true friend to many and was very devoted to the people in her life. She leaves to mourn: her husband, Lee Thomas Nelums; daughter, Debra; daughters, Jo Ann Bowman from Portland, Oregon, Jane, and Mary; sons, Mark, Marvin, Thomas, Charles and Antonio; three sons-in-law, Walter, Skip and Floyd; eleven grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, four sisters, two brothers, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends
