

Rose Hall-Brown

December 25, 1911 - July 14, 2002

Rose Hall-Brown, affectionately known as “Grandma,” daughter of the late John and Mary Ann Cottman, was born on December 25, 1911 in Nashville, Tennessee. She departed this life on July 14, 2002. She received her education in New York City and went on to do domestic work in various locations. She met and married the late John Brewer and out of this union one daughter, Virginia, was born (she preceded her mother in death). Grandma later relocated to Baltimore and met and remarried the late Carter Hall and the late Freeman Brown. Grandma loved to cook, always making sure that there was enough for everyone to eat. She always had a kind word to share with anyone she met. She enjoyed traveling throughout her lifetime. Grandma had a beautiful voice, always singing or humming. As a young woman, Grandma became a member of the House of Prayer and served faithfully on various committees. She was also a member of the Order of the Eastern Star. Later on, she became a member of the John Wesley United Methodist Church and served there faithfully as and usher until her health prevented her. Her favorite scripture was John 14:1-4. She leaves to mourn: nineteen grandchildren, Bookert, Gilda, John, Johnetta, Sharon, James, Julia, Rosalyn, Katie, Paulette, Ruth, William, Clementine, Lynn, Vanceen, Dorcia, Joann, Carlene and a favorite, Overtena (who preceded her in death); twenty-seven great-grandchildren, twenty-one great-great-grandchildren, a large host of family members and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Rose Hall-Brown

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM