

Rose F. Harris

August 6, 1942 - January 19, 2011

ROSEA F. HARRIS was born on August 6, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Purnell and Moses Fitzgerald and was laid to rest on January 19, 2011. She attended the Baltimore City School System and was a graduate of the Paul Laurence Dunbar Senior High School. Upon graduation she obtained many rewarding occupations including supervisor for Bell Atlantic Telephone Company, now Verizon.

Rose was a very beloved church-going woman who inspired all she came in contact with. She loved shopping, vacationing, and having her hair and nails done. She also enjoyed taking care of her pet, Angel still lives on.

She was introduced to salvation by her one and only most beloved late sister, Lacey Gray. She joined Zion Baptist Church under Dr. Marshall F. Prentice, Pastor. She enjoyed working on the pastor's aid, singing in the choir, attending Sunday school and a host of other missionaries. She was joined in holy matrimony to the late Earnest Harris, Sr. in December of 1971. She received her greatest gift from God, her son Earnest Harris, Jr. whom she would do anything and everything for him as well as inspired him to become a strong young man, as he was her only child.

Rose F. Harris was a sister, wife, mother, aunt, cousin, and a friend just to name a few along with being a child of God. She leaves us to mourn her passing yet to treasure her memories for she is now with the Lord: one son, Earnest Jr.; two stepdaughters, Tammy and Crystal; five niece and nephews, Cynthia, Larry, Karen, Pam and Will; four great-niece and nephews, Torrance, Tavon, Nakia and Keona; five great- great- nephews, Lil Torrance, Elijah, Dorian, Lil Tavon and Darius. Also, first cousin, Sarah and Queen; and a host of other relatives and friends. Rosa was preceded in death by her late husband, Earnest Harris, Sr.; her only sister Lacey Gray and great-niece, Schneara Boone.

We loved her, but God loved her best.
