“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. First Corinthians chapter 15, verse 26 tells us that death is an enemy that will be destroyed. What about our loved ones who have died? Acts 24:15 assures us- "...there is going to be a resurrection..." May you receive much comfort, strength and hope from these loving promises from our Creator.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." It is my hope that you will be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ It is truly unfortunate that the sorrow associated with the death of a loved one invades our lives. The Bible offers us a source of comfort from the "God of all comfort who promises to comfort us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. May you find strength and comfort there.##imported-begin##Gwen W.##imported-end##
