

Rose A. White

September 10, 1949 - October 31, 2013

ROSE ANN WHITE, better known as Ann, was born September 10, 1949 in Orangeburg, South Carolina to the late John and Rose White. She was raised by her beloved aunt, the late Odell Gladney, in Long Island, New York where Ann graduated from high school.

During the 70's, as an airline stewardess, Ann traveled the world before finally residing in California where she received her Associate of Arts degree. She later moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she became certified in electronics and worked for Bendix Corporation until she became disabled. While in Baltimore, she met and married Douglas Joyner who preceded her in death.

At an early age, Ann accepted Christ as her personal Savior. She was an avid Bible study student. She enjoyed researching books of the Bible, as well as, various other religious cultures. In 1998, at the First Philadelphia Baptist Church, under the leadership of the late Bishop Elijah McDaniel, Ann was certified as a Missionary. In 2004, she was ordained as an Evangelist.

Ann was a joy to be around. She had a great sense of humor and loved to dance, play Pinochle, knit, work crossword puzzles, and yes! She was a Scrabble whiz.

Our beloved, Rose Ann White was quietly called to eternal rest on October 30, 2013. She leaves to mourn: two children, Tonia Nixon and David Harrison; three grandchildren, Breanna Gabrielle Washington, Shateara Harrison-Clark and Jasmine Nixon; one great-grandson, Caleb Washington; nine siblings, Lloyd Glasper (Rosetta), Joe M. Washington, Martha Wallingford (Warren), John White Jr. (Aurelia), Eli Monroe White (Veronica), Mary Lee (Herman), Dr. Joseph W. Washington Jr., Lucille Blue (Reginald), Geneva White, who Ann affectionately called her “sister-niece,” one stepbrother, Booker T. Washington; a long time best friend, Janette Minus; and a host of relatives and friends.
