

Rose M. Williams-Johnson

July 26, 1961 - March 4, 2018

Rose was born on July 24, 1961 in Baltimore City to Beatrice Williams. She was the third of six children. Rose received her education in the Baltimore City school system. Rose then went on to obtain a secretarial certificate.

Rose loved strong and hard. She loved her children and she loved God. She praised him every hour of the day. Rose was often a pillar of support and motivator, helping friends and family by giving words of encouragement and a shoulder to lean on through difficult times. Rose was employed as a data entry specialist with Connect America for the last 5 years. She absolutely loved her job where she was affectionately nicknamed "Rose Bud" by some of her co-workers. Rose also loved to laugh and had such an infectious smile that would light up a room. She was loved by all and had many friends. "Hey Ms. Rose!" you would hear often from people as she walked along the streets. One of her favorite hobbies was putting together five thousand piece puzzles that she somehow manage to finish in just a few days. She enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. Rose was always the life of the party. She will truly and greatly be missed by all who loved her.

She is survived by her mother Beatrice Williams, son Stanley P. Harmon III, daughter Shaniece D. Williams, sister Janet Williams and a host of nieces, nephews and relatives. She was predeceased by her husband Dwayne Johnson, grandmother Agnes Friend, sisters Sharon Williams, Karen Williams and Angela Glover, brother Joseph "Eddie" Williams, brother in law Carl Glover, nephews Damon Mullen and Anthony Mullen.
