

Roseann Maria Smith

April 2, 1962 - November 16, 2011

ROSEANN MARIA SMITH was born in Baltimore, Maryland on April 2, 1962 to the late Henry C. Smith and Helen L. Smith.

After a very lengthy illness, she departed this life and went home to our Lord on November 16, 2011. "Ro" (as she was affectionately called by family and friends) received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She also attended the Baltimore City Community College, Harbor Campus. Roseann frequently attended the Mt. Carmel Baptist Church and joined on November 1, 2009. She was Baptized on June 12, 2010.

"Ro" worked for the Department of Homeland Security as a Transportation Security Screener. She was loved by all of her many co-workers and will be remembered for cooking great meals and sharing them with her co-workers. Everyone that knew Roseann will always remember her for her kind nature and generous heart. Roseann loved reading books and was famous for decorating on the holidays.

"Ro" endured until the end. She kept her faith, never complained, and was an example of faith, love and courage. She leaves to mourn: her mother, Helen L. Smith; her loving son, Cory A. Mercer; her grandson, Keith A. Mercer; two sisters, Kerri Smith and Joann Smith; two brothers, Raymond P. Smith and Christopher Smith. She is survived by a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces and -nephews family and friends. She was preceded in death by three brothers, Oscar Smith, Henry Smith and James Smith, and one sister, Ella Smith.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
