

Rosella Byrd

June 5, 1944 - October 16, 2015

Rosella Fair Byrd affectionately known to most as “Rose” was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fair on June 5, 1944.

Home grown to natural church going family Rosella accepted Yahweh as her Savior at an early age. As Rosella walked through life’s ever changing challenges, she referred to the Holy Bible as her guide through life’s journey.

Some of her favorite pastimes were reading scriptures from the bible, listening to the blares of gospel music, being engrossed in her favorite soaps, and getting to know and love the people who she met in everyday life. She was a humble soul and a gentle lovable Spirit. Loved by many and touched the heart of all she befriended. She will be greatly missed but never forgotten in our hearts and memories.

She leaves behind to cherish her bountiful of memories: her mom, Mozell Holmes Fair; a son, Wiltford Wendell Byrd, Jr.; also her beloved adoptive family, Chanell Abdul-Muhaimin, Minnie Perry, Briana Abdul-Muhaimin and Zuri Awuku; and a long list of extended family that includes her Manor Care family and friends.
