A Loving Friend - September 09, 2011 at 09:15 AM

“ Money being a friend for so many years I know that your mother was your everything. The time i spent with Rose meant a lot to me. We all know we have know control of when our time on earth will end. Rememeber that your mother is with the Lord in a better place now, where there is no more suffering or pain. Until we meet again Ms.Rose I love you and miss you very much.##imported-begin##Sharon##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I also suffered a loss today. I am glad to know that our loving Heavenly Father is not responsible for this. Soon He will put an end to pain and death according to Revelation chapter 21 and verse 4. I hope you find comfort from this Bible promise.##imported-begin##Joseph Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the promise of the resurrection. Isa 26:19 says, "your dead ones will live....they will rise up." Jesus also demonstrated the power of the resurrection with Lazarus at John 11:38-44. May this give you the strength and encouragement you need at this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At this very grievous time it could seem extremely difficult to find comfort, but there is a comforter who soothes us in such a way that no human ever could. The Bible calls Jehovah God, “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) And what’s more his word gives us further relief and a beautiful hope. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29 we read of a promise that is very soon to be realized. It speaks of an event in which all who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Yes, a resurrection from an unconscious state, to life right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you find comfort as you reflect on this wonderful occasion that is to come.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. At times like these it may seem that there is no source of comfort. No source of relief from your sorrow. I have been able to find comfort in God's Word, The Bible. I have found comfort from the wonderful hope expressed at Acts 24:15 and the promise made at John 5:28,29. May these serve as a source of comfort for you also.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
