“ Aunt RoseMary, I am so sorrow that you had to leave us early due to your sudden illness. When my dad passed away I knew that I still had you his only sister to call to say hi or to ask questions about the family in the past. I miss that. Even though we had been distant for a while, when we did see one another you always had a smile of happiness on your face. I am glad that our heavenly father placed you in my life to have as a good Auntie. I will always remember the boy talks we had and the good food you cooked to fill my empty stomach. You will always remain a part of me and my brothers lives. Missing you Always, Mary Ann###imported-begin##Mary Brown Jackson###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest condolences on the passing of your loved one. Death was never a part of God's purpose for the human family, and he purposes to end sickness and death in the near future. Rev 21:4 lets us know that he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more. I pray those thoughts bring your family comfort, as well as the hope of seeing your loved one again in the resurrection promised at Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
