

Rosemary Williams

February 11, 1947 - April 9, 2011

ROSEMARY WILLIAMS, daughter of the late Eva and John Williams, was born February 11, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on April 9, 2011.

Rosemary was baptized at Palmetto Freewill Baptist Church at age eleven. She later joined New Antioch Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. William Chambers. In 2010 she joined Mt. Hebron Baptist Church where she remained a faithful member until her untimely death.

Rosemary received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. She was a 1965 graduate of Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. After graduating, she attended Cortez Peters School of Business.

Rosemary was employed at Maryland Casualty Company and Blue Cross Blue Shield of Maryland before becoming employer with Baltimore Gas and Electric Company, on April 24, 1972. She retired after twenty-nine years of service on March 1, 2002.

Rosemary enjoyed life. She took pleasure in hosting family events. Her favorite was the Good Friday Fish Fry. She loved to travel and looked forward to going to church on Sundays. Her neighbors say they will miss her kind spirit and beautiful smile.

Preceding her in death are two siblings Ruth Elaine Williams and Barbara Ann Means.

Rosemary was a loving mother and doting grandmother. She leaves to cherish her memory her children, Janice and John; grandchildren, Jason and Justin; two brothers, Wendell (Helen), Calvin (Cecelia); three sister, Zennie Reed, Carolyn Echols, Brenda Williams-Owens (Ronald); four aunts, Little M. Smiley, Ruby King, Dorothy Robinson and Hattie King; goddaughter, Martha Brown; a lifelong friend, James Wilson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
