

Rosetta L. Gamble

January 23, 1925 - December 28, 2010

On Tuesday morning, December 28, 2010, God Almighty in His Wise Providence, called from her labors here on earth to an everlasting home, the soul of our deceased sister, the late MRS. ROSETTA LAWRENCE GAMBLE. Death came quickly to her at Manor Care Nursing Home after a long illness.

She was born in Clarendon County, South Carolina on January 23, 1925. She was the daughter of the late Mr. James and Mrs. Lurena Goodman Lawrence. Converted in her youth, she joined Mt. Calvary Holiness Church of Manning, South Carolina where she served as a deaconess and was also on the Mother's Board. She was a very cook and prepared many delicious meals for the church. She was a faithful member until she became ill.

After moving to Baltimore, Maryland she regularly attended Mt. Moriah Baptist Church and became a part of the Senior's group called The Germs.

As children of God, we sometimes find it hard to understand His ways, but as Christians we know that whatever he does, it's for the best. Therefore, we know that whatever He does, it's for the best. Therefore, we bow in humble submission to His Holy Will. We pray that we shall meet her again in that land of eternal rest.

Two of her famous quotes were, "Keep looking up because there's nothing down there but dirt,” and “May the Lord take a liking to you and bless you real good.”

After reaching womanhood, she married Mr. Walter Gamble who preceded her in death. Four sisters and seven brothers also preceded her in death.

She leaves the following loved ones to mourn her passing: a devoted niece, Queen Hardy, who was her caregiver for many years and a host of other relatives and friends.
