

Rosetta Henderson

August 15, 1933 - December 30, 2005

ROSETTA HARRIS HENDERSON quietly slipped away on Friday, December 30, 2005. She was the daughter of the late Rosalie and Charlie Harris. Rosetta was preceded in death by her daughter, Dianna Watts, and her husband, Alexander Henderson. She was born in Baltimore, Maryland, but received most of her education in Virginia. She became gainfully employed at a young age. With the help of her mother, she raised two little girls as a single parent. She worked hard, and was employed for many years by The Fields Corporation. Rose, as she was known by many, and Momma to every child in the Park Heights community, was loved by everyone who knew her. She was sensitive, soft spoken, and understanding. She would give you the clothes off her back if needed. There was nothing she wouldn't do for you. After retirement, she felt the need to be surrounded by family and friends most of the time. She became a member of Gillis Memorial Church in the 1970's, and there she remained until her passing. She is survived by: her daughter, Deborah Hope; four granddaughters, Denita Townes, Tereasa Barnes, Michelle Travis and Manika Neville; two grandsons, Alandious (Tony) Feldman, Jr. and Amin Boyd and wife, Trina Boyd; great-aunt, Annabell Beck; sister, Mary Ann Colson; brother, William Harris and wife, Tereasa Harris; step-mother, Annie Harris; thirteen great-grandchild, one great great-granddaughter and many other devoted relatives and friends.

“ I offer my condolences to the family and friends of Ms. Henderson. It is truly unfortunate that at times we have to feel the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort in the resurrection hope promised at Acts 24:15 and look forward to the time when "death will be no more," Rev 21:3,4.##imported-begin##G. Winston##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
