

Rosetta Deloris Johnson

April 9, 1929 - May 22, 2012

Rosetta Deloris Johnson, daughter of the late James and Jannie Belle Singletary, was born on April 9, 1929 in Portsmouth, Virginia. She departed this life on May 22, 2012.

She attended and graduated from the Baltimore City Public School System.

Rosetta was joined in Holy Matrimony to the late Leon Johnson on January 16, 1946. No children were born in this union. After grieving the departure of her husband, she rapidly declined battling her own illness.

Rosetta was very loved by many family members who needed to look up to her for guidance. She cared and raised her niece, Janice Mugar who was very dedicated, especially devoted and cared for Rosetta until her departure.

She was employed at Westinghouse/Northrop Grumman from April 4, 1966 until May 2, 2006. She was the last surviving sibling of five sisters and five brothers.

She leaves to mourn: nephew, James Singletary; two nieces, Odella Singletary and Janice Mugar; and a host of great-nieces and –nephews, other relatives and friends.

Rosetta was the Matriarch of the entire Singletary family and will be sorely missed.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. It is so hard to lose a loved one no matter what their age may be. However, try to think of the joy that will be when God will "wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more" (Revelation 21:4) and then we will be able to enjoy countless generations. Again, please accept my sincere condolences.
