

Rosetta Robinson

August 28, 1909 - December 31, 2002

Rosetta Robinson, daughter of the late Frances Robinson Thompson and Johnny Thompson, was born on August 28, 1909 in Warsaw, Virginia. She departed this life on December 31, 2002. She received her education in Warsaw, Virginia. In the early 1940's, Rosetta moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she became a domestic engineer until her retirement. She joined Zion Baptist Church in the early 1960's and was a faithful member until her illness. Rosetta was well known for so many things. She was a fantastic cook and made the best homemade cherry and lemon meringue pies. She was kind to everyone she met and loved her grandchildren. She leaves to mourn: two brothers, Leonard Thompson and Abraham (John) Thompson; sister, Katherine Thompson; two grandsons, James Robinson and Bernard Robinson; sister-in-law, Margaret Krell; seven great-grandchildren, eight great-great-grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends. She was also the devoted grandmother of the late Doris McQuaige and Bernice Darby.
