

Rosie Crowder

February 22, 1939 - April 13, 2012

On April 18, 2012 ROSIE CROWDER, wife of the late Thomas Andra Crowder and daughter of the late Mary Eldridge and Warner Maloy Epps, departed this life from a short term illness. Now she's joining her son, the late Larry Darcell Austin Crowder. She was born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland

Rosie attended the Baltimore City School System. She was known to her family and friends as "Mama" a.k.a. "Granny" related or non-related she was Aunt Rose. To know her was to love her. She touched many lives. She was a rose that blossomed in everybody's life. Rosie was a mother/grandmother to all that came in her life and she would take anybody in: feeding them, clothing them or giving them money. Her favorite saying was, "Don't tell nobody" or "You ain't getting from me. (OG)"

Not only was her name Rose, she always smelled like a rose, Her specialty was delivering babies, no matter who was pregnant. Her love was golden... no platinum.

She leaves to cherish her memory: daughters, Charlotte, Miller, Angela and Latanya; sons, Sie, Floyd, Edward, Darryl and Reggie; forty-five grandchildren, twenty-three great-grandchildren, sisters, Cherry Page and Fannie Murray; her best friend, Lillian "Buddy"; and a host of nieces, nephews, godchildren and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

*“ My condolences to the family,
At a time like this may you find comfort in the scriptures at Rev 21:3,4 where Almighty God promises to remove sickness and death. Only then will we be able to enjoy perfect life on earth forever. May this encourage and strengthen you during your time of bereavement.*
