

Rosie Lee Edmondson

February 3, 1933 - January 28, 2019

Mrs. Rosie Lee Edmondson was born the daughter of Prince Ella Spencer and James Bates on February 3rd, 1933 in Rural Lee, Arkansas. After a lengthy illness, she fell asleep in death on January 28, 2019.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her son Aaron, three brothers, Clarence Glen Jr., Franklin Glen and James Glen as well as three sisters, Ida Mae Stokes, Elnora Doretha Glen and D'ella White.

She is survived by her husband of 70 years, Henry Edmondson; seven sons, Henry Jr., Animashun Bakari, Frank (Tocoa), Carl, Rickee, Rodney Donnell (Darlene), and Chike; three daughters, Delois, Eleanor Pope (Charles) and Regina; as well as a host of grandchildren, nephews, nieces, great-grandchildren and many, many friends.

Rosie was a hard-working woman. She came from a small farming town with a fifth-grade education. She married Henry Edmondson at the age of 17 and moved to the big city of Baltimore, Maryland. where she became well established. Rosie loved school. Despite her difficulty in not being able to obtain her high school diploma, she made sure all of her children graduated from high school and received their diplomas. She worked part time at the race track in Laurel and Pimlico as a kitchen prep and a waitress.

She was mainly a homemaker. Rosie provided the best way she could for her family on a very tight budget. She was a great cook and caregiver. She loved children; and anytime someone needed emotional support, Rosie was always there with great advice. Rosie was very creative and artistic. She loved sewing. She attended night classes at Carver Vocational School where she received a certificate in industrial sewing.

Rosie Lee Edmondson made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend, a devoted wife and caring mother.
