

Rosie M. Moore

October 20, 1968 - October 22, 2019

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2a says, “To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die...” On Sunday, October 20, 1968, a beautiful baby girl – named Rosie Markita Moore, our “rose bud,” was welcomed into the world. On Tuesday, October 22, 2019 at 11:51 p.m., from Franklin Square Hospital, she quietly transitioned from her earthly dwelling place to her heavenly home.

Rosie was the first of four children born to the union of the late Reverend Sylvester Moore and Alice Moore-Rawlings.

Rosie was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Having a love and talent for hair design, she furthered her studies in the field of cosmetology.

At an early age, Rosie was taught the importance of knowing, loving, and having a personal relationship with Christ. Her early religious training was gained through her attendance at New Jerusalem Fire Baptized Holiness Church of God of the Americas, where she sat under the teachings of the late Pastors, Elder W. E. Ayers, Elder O. R. Chiles, and Elder David McBride. While there she was a part of the Youth Church, and sang on the Mass Choir. She and her family later became members of Greater New Birth Fire Baptized Holiness Church of God of the Americas, where her uncle, Reverend Eddie L.

Callaham served as Pastor.

Rosie was married to Allion Whitley on June 16, 1991. She was blessed with three beautiful children: two daughters and a son, whom she loved very much. She was also blessed with seven beautiful grandchildren whom she adored. Rosie possessed a loving, caring, giving, and protective spirit. Although she enjoyed spending time with friends, and watching scary movies, nothing took the place of her greatest joy – being around her family.

Rosie was preceded in death by her grandson, Avan't Jai'Heam Harris.

Despite life's challenges, the teachings and biblical foundation that had been laid early in Rosie's life, and the effectual fervent prayers of the righteous, served as a reminder to her that she could always turn unto the Lord. In John 6:37, Jesus says, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." Rosie Markita Moore's testimony to her family before she transitioned was that, it was well with her soul – she had made peace with the Lord! To God Be The Glory!!!

Rosie leaves to cherish her memory a loving and devoted family: Two daughters, Markita Harris (Shawn), Stranjay Whitley, and one son, LeEdwin Whitley; Parents, Alice Moore-Rawlings and Reverend Charles Rawlings; Grandchildren, Makayla Moore, Aliayah Harris, Tammara Harris, Andre Whitley, Marquise Carroll, and Izaiah Carroll; brothers, Sylvester Moore (Lea) of Virginia Beach, Virginia, and Terry Moore; Sisters, Alicia Moore, and Sharon Harris of West Virginia; Uncles, Pastor Eddie L. Callaham, Bishop William A. Liggins, Sr., Gerenda Moore of West Virginia and Jimmy Leon Moore of Richmond, Virginia; Aunts, Dr. Patricia Liggins and Doralene Callaham; Nephews, Jared Smith, Evan Sylvester Moore and Maurice Harris; Nieces, Dominique Dunham, Blair Hanna, Cemone Alice Moore, and Sade Jackson; and a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends.

“To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.”

Lovingly Submitted – The Family
