

Rosina Brown Norman

August 6, 1922 - July 21, 2008

Rosina Brown Norman was born August 6, 1922 to Arthur and Marion Brown in Baltimore, Maryland. She attended public schools here and was a graduate of Fredrick Douglass High School, class of 1941. After graduating she moved to New York City to live with her aunt, Mrs. Alice Neal Campbell. There she met and later married David Norman. Rosina had a great love for the Arts. She enjoyed listening to classical music. She also enjoyed playing golf and horseback riding. She loved children, although she never had any of her own. She was raised in a family with eleven sisters and brothers. She leaves to mourn two brothers, Grafton and Marcellus (Butch) Brown, and a host of nieces, nephews. She will surely be missed.
