

Rosita Edwards

January 3, 1954 - February 20, 2014

Rosita Edwards was born at Provident Hospital in Baltimore, MD on January 3, 1954 to the late Addie Mae Edwards and the late Simon Solórzano. She was the oldest of 5 children. She attended Public Schools and graduated from Frederick Douglas High School in 1972.

After high school she worked at various jobs including Citicorp and The Hecht Company where she always enjoyed the shopping as well as the atmosphere of those around her. After that Rosita came upon her position at CareFirst where she worked for 13 years. She had many friends who were there but more importantly they felt like family to her. They enjoyed many good times with lots of laughter because she always had a smile and a kind word wherever she went. Rosita was very good in caring for her family which she truly loved as well as those who were truly close to her. She was a sweet, kind, genuine person who was always there when you truly needed her.

She was an avid sports fan particularly the Baltimore Ravens and the Los Angeles Lakers. She would get into the game if it was a good one. She always had a beautiful smile that was full of joy and love, not to mention a "quick" remark which usually left you laughing. She enjoyed music, traveling, cooking and just being with her family and friends. Wherever Rosita went, she made friends very easily. She was a very loveable person who will be truly missed by everyone that knew and loved her.

On February 20, 2014, God knew it was time to bring her home once she became ill. She is preceded in death by her mother and father, Addie Mae Edwards and Simon Solorzano, her brother ,Jose Solorzano and sister, Lolita Solorzano. She leaves to cherish her memory her brother, Frederico Solorzano and sister, Anna Allen, two nieces - Shania Brown and Tyleeshia Mayo, one Nephew, Malek Mayo and their father, Gregory Mayo, one aunt, Ruby Suggs and longtime family friend Leila Hairston as well as her longtime and devoted friend, Curtis Harris. She is also cherished by a host of extended family members and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ Seems like it was just yesterday when you were down in the training room showing us the ropes. You will be missed but I know you are in a place where pain and suffering can't touch you!

Have a "clucker" on me :-)

“ Share a memory of Rosita Edwards, or send a condolence to the family... I remember all the times we went out and had dinner and then we talked for hours about everything. You were the best listener I have ever known and I will never have another friend like you. I will always remember you with the fondest of memories. Roz

“ Ms. Ro, what am I going to do without you checking on me & Ash, talking trash to me about me sports teams and just being around to fuss at??? You will truly be missed. You are in a better place, I know but that doesn't make it easier for me to deal with. Love you little lady. Rest in paradise! !

“ Miss Rosita, words cannot express the sadness I felt when i heard of your passing. I will miss you walking pass me every single day (unless one of us was on PTO), saying " Good morning Springettes" God has truly picked a flower filled with love and goodness. Continue to watch over us and every time the season changes I will think of you.
