

Roslyn H. Campbell

August 12, 1956 - May 12, 2017

Roslyn Harriett Thorne Campbell, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on August 12, 1956. She was the youngest child of the late Robert and Berlean Thorne. The family resided in the 1700 block of North Monroe Street, where Roslyn and her siblings, Patricia, Sharon, Sandra and Deborah, enjoyed a loving and lively childhood. Their family was an integral part of the community events and activities. After the death of her parents, Roslyn continued to maintain the homestead.

All of Roslyn's spiritual, educational and social endeavors occurred in Baltimore, Maryland. In 1975, she met and married, William "Chico" Campbell. From this union, they were blessed with a son, Marcellus Mantell. He was the apple of her eyes. Also, very dear to Roslyn were two nieces, Jessica and Raven Thorne. They became her children, and along with her son, she nurtured and guided them with love and understanding.

Roslyn, affectionately known as Rah Rah, had a witty personality; she could always put a smile on your face. She was the life of the party. She met no strangers. Roslyn loved music and was known to add the "steps" to it. Her favorite pastime was the time spent with her best bud, her sister, Deborah. They were like two peas in a pod; when you saw one, you saw the other. Roslyn was a loving mother, sister, grandmother, aunt, cousin and friend. She will be missed by all.

In addition to her parents, Roslyn was preceded in death by her sisters, Sharon and Sandra.

Roslyn leaves not to mourn, but to celebrate her life: son, Marcellus and wife, Ann; six grandchildren; husband, William; sisters, Patricia White and Deborah Ruffin and husband, William; nieces, Nicole, Jessica, Raven and LaDonna; nephews, Damon and Dorrell; devoted friend, Alvin "Bozie" Pye; and a host of other relatives and friends.
