“ My deepest sympathy to the family on the loss of your loved. May the God of Comfort give you courage and strength during these difficult times.( Psalms 34:18)

M. Johnson - January 08, 2012 at 06:12 PM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

Ms Springer - January 07, 2012 at 05:19 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

At this time of loss we are called to remember. My memories are of a bright, engaging, and popular teen-ager. When I met her I had no choice but to fall in love. Our four children are a testament to God's purpose in our coming together. I will always carry in my heart the good memories of those early years of our lives together.
