“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. She certainly lived a long life by today's life span, and yet it still wasn't long enough, because it is Jeh0vah's will that people live forever. Death was never a part of his purpose, because he is the source of all life, and he hates death. One day, by means of the ressurection, all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out, those who did good thing to everlasting life. JOhn 5:28,29 May you be comforted by this wonderful promise of the ressurection, and may your precious memories of Rowenas be a source of joy to you to help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mrs. Smith. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about the loving resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
