

Roxanne Denise McDowell

December 29, 1963 - March 30, 2010

ROXANNE DENISE McDOWELL was born in Baltimore, Maryland on December 29, 1963 to the Robert Pate and Geraldine Pate Venson. She went to be with the Lord, after a lengthy illness on March 30, 2010. Roxanne, who was affectionately called "Lady," received her formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System. After high school, she earned her Certified Nursing and Geriatric Nursing Certifications (CNA/GNA) and worked for several years in the nursing field. In her later years, Roxanne worked for the Baltimore City Public School System, which she enjoyed immensely. Some of the happiest times of Lady's life were spent caring and being with her grandchildren. She took joy in talking about them to her friends and family. Lady lived a full life enjoying her family and friends. She strived to best that she could in providing a loving, nurturing and stable home for her children. And, let's not forget Lady's spiritual side. She attended the Victory Ministries, where Tony Evans was her pastor. She loved and depended on the Lord for her help; and with that help she finished her course, fought a good fight and is now with the Lord. Roxanne leaves to mourn her passing: her beloved mother, Geraldine Pate Venson; three children, Michelle Montgomery, Anthony McDowell, Jr. and Courtney McDowell; four grandchildren, Kyah McDowell, Rodell Price, Kaya McDowell and Jaylin Teal; two sisters, Dawn Pate Edwards (Rodney Edwards, Sr.) and Kanika Venson; brother, Dwayne Pate (Anna Pate); and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Thank you Roxanne for loving my daughter, Demetria, as much as your own. I'll always be grateful for the time spent, the many gifts, kisses and love you showered on her, and for our relationship as well. No more suffering, no more misery, no more pain; rest in peace.###imported-begin###Fee###imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus 'swallow up death forever and wipe the tears from all faces.' (Isaiah 25:8) What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
