

Roy Lee Bryant, Jr.

March 21, 1947 - February 22, 2019

Roy L. Bryant, Jr. was born to the late Roy Lee Bryant Sr. and Doris Mae Bryant in Richmond, Virginia on March 21, 1947.

He married the love of his life Jacquelin Adeline Dargon Bryant on February 3, 1968. From that union, Pamela, Tawana, Roy III and Reginald, Sr. his four pride and joys were born.

Roy was an excellent provider, leader, pillar of the community, and entrepreneur. He started his career path in Washington DC, where he worked for the D.C. Postal System, served as Shop Steward for the Postal Union, and joined the D.C. Police Force receiving several awards for outstanding police work. He served in several capacities while on the force as an undercover Police Officer and assisted with the Boy's and Girl's Club.

Roy returned to Richmond with his family after his mother became ill to run the family Assisted Living business until his retirement in 2007. At which time, he concentrated on his true passion of community activism. He served on the Central State Human Right's Board and was a lifetime member of the NAACP receiving honors, was active on the Virginia State Transportation Committee, and was instrumental in the closing of two elementary schools built on landfills. He coached football in both D.C. and Richmond, but his favorite pastime was fishing.

Roy was always concerned with for the rights of others and put himself in a position to help those in need. He will be greatly missed for his words of wisdom and his love of humanity.

He leaves behind his beloved wife, Jacquelin Bryant of 50 years; two daughters, Pamela Barrett and Tawana Tucker (Ronnie); 2 sons, Roy L. Bryant, III (Kimberly) and Reginald Bryant, Sr. (Michelle); 11 grandchildren, D'Jata A. Barrett, Jacquelin J. Bullock, Kaili W. Bryant, Quinton M. Bryant, Bishop L. Bryant, Malik Talley, Robert L. Davis, Terence T. Talley, Jamona T. Bryant, Reginald M. Bryant, Jr., Daniel J. Bryant; great-grandchild, Jer'Von C. Brown; 6 siblings, Bishop Ronald Bryant (Minerva), Joyce Freeman (David), Yvonne Bryant, Eddie Hargrove (Jackie), Annie Fields (Derrick) and Joseph Bryant; and a host of other relatives and friends.
