“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ May your family have peace and comfort from our loving father Jehovah, who comforts us in all our tribulation. The hope of the resurrection is a certain reality, made possible by the precious blood of the lamb, Jesus Christ. Very soon instead of tears of sorrow, we will shed tears of joy as we welcome our loved ones back to life. Death will never stalk mankind again. As 1st Cor. 15,26 promises: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. May the comfort from the scriptures bring you hope as you reflect on the precious memories of your loved one.##imported-begin##R JohnaonrrR##imported-end##

“ Sadly, sooner or later death strikes every family. One day soon, God promises that no resident will say, I am sick. Isaiah 33,24. He also promises at Isaiah 25:8 that he will swallow up death forever. Very soon our savior Jesus Christ will bring our loved ones back to life, and they will never die ever again. This is the promise from our heavenly father, Jehovah the creator and lifegiver. Under his kingdom arrangement all will live again in peace and happiness. I pray that the comfort of the scriptures will sustain you at this time. Take care.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
