

Roy Garcia Campbell

September 10, 1957 - September 22, 2001

Roy G. Campbell, son of the late Roy Gatewood Campbell and Doris L. Coates, was born on September 10, 1957. He departed this life suddenly on September 22, 2001. He received his education at Baltimore City College High School. At the age of nineteen, he entered the United States Army and served his country for nine years. During his years in the military, he met and married Marisa M. Ugliano, and from their union was born one son, Nathaniel G. Campbell. Roy was very social and enjoyed having fun. He was always trying to tell a joke but he was funniest when he was just being himself. He acquired friends wherever he went. His easy style and great smile made him very approachable. During a valley in his life, Roy reached out and sought the help of Christ to pull him out a moment of despair. He journeyed to the Master's side many times even day by day. He wrote of his love for Him in many poems. He shared these expressions with anyone who might need encouragement for as they too, often lost their way. He fashioned his hands at whatever the task. He acquired knowledge and skills that allowed him to be a jack-of-all-trades. He was also gifted with many abilities. Roy was an artist, a musician, a poet, black belt and a chef. Roy leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Marisa M. Campbell; son, Nathaniel G. Campbell of Fairfax, VA,; his mother, Doris L. Coates; twin sister, Royette M. Campbell and younger sister Talaya R. Sample; one niece, JaLisa R. Sample, all of Baltimore, MD; his in-laws, Norma and Tonino Ugliano; sister-in-law, Angela Ugliano Morrow; brothers-in-laws, Giacomo Ugliano and Tony Morrow, all of Italy; a special friend, Susan; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.
