

Roy H. Jackson

January 17, 1928 - October 11, 2011

ROY HENRY JACKSON, son of the late William Edward Jackson and Mary Emma Jackson (both deceased), was born on January 17, 1928 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on October 11, 2011 after a long illness.

Roy received his early education in the Baltimore Public School System and graduated from Frederick Douglas High School. After graduation he enlisted in the United States the from 1946 to 1950.

After successfully completing his enlistment from the army, he studied with his mother and was baptized as a Jehovah Witness. He married Herline Brunson and from this union three sons were born, Roy Jr, Rodney and Michael.

When his first marriage ended he began to work for Farboil Paint Company in 1962. This is where he met his Wife Ella Mae Spence and her two daughters, Barbara Jean and Rosalind Denise. He also met his devoted goddaughter Lula Mae who assisted him through his golden years.

After leaving Farboil Company, he contracted himself to various laundry facilities repairing the machinery until his retirement .

Roy had a love for all music but mostly enjoyed listening to jazz and the blues. He visited Casino's often and enjoyed putting puzzles together. He enjoyed his special day with his sister Edna and his brother Roland and loved spending time with his grandchildren.

Roy made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man.

He leaves to mourn: his wife Ella; three sons, Roy Jr., Rodney and Michael; daughter, Barbara Jean Harrison (Albert); devoted goddaughter, Lula Mae Roy (Nickey); sister Edna Bacon; two brothers, Roland Jackson and Irving Jackson; five grandchildren, Keith, LaTonya (DeAnthony Sr.), Chereka, Troy (Linda) and Corintha; seven great-grandchildren, Dayauna, Erin, Shawn, Latonya II, Zachary, DeAnthony Jr. and Zion; one great-great -grandchild, Deaira; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
