

Roy L Parker

November 6, 1949 - August 10, 2021

ROY PARKER, also affectionately known as Lee and Pop Pop or Pop Pop Roy, was born November 6, 1949 in Baltimore City, Maryland to his biological mother Lily Rose Smith, and later given to Romeo and M. Rose Parker. Roy fell asleep in death due to a lengthy battle with cancer on August 10, 2021.

Roy received his education in Germany, Chicago and Baltimore. Roy also served in the army until his honorable discharge.

He worked as a pipefitter for Bethlehem Steel for many years. He was also a concrete layer; and after his retirement Roy diligently served as an addiction counselor, mentoring many.

Roy was very close to and protective of his family. He was a great provider to his wife and son, as well as all that were in need.

Roy loved watching sports and having family gatherings and interacting with his NA family.

He was preceded in death by his brother James Edward Scott.

Roy leaves to cherish his loving memory: the love of his life, his wife of 12 years Tonya Parker; his mother, M. Rose Cheriton; his children, Roy Jr.,

Chrystal, Joseph and wife, Jasmine, Daniel, Shaney and Tavon; his sisters, Barbara J. Glen and husband, Norman, Michelle Harriston and husband, Kevin; his brothers, Willie Green and wife, Vanessa and Vernon Green; eleven grandchildren and one great-grand, as well a host of other family and friends.

“ *My deepest condolences to Tonya and family. Brother Roy Parker (Lee as we use to call him) was one of my best friends from childhood to now, over the years God brought us very close. Brother you were very instrumental in the lives so many people including mines, and it was always good to hear God working through your unique voice as you speak.
"Rest easy my friend " you will truly be missed.
Your brother and true friend Pleas Gethers & Eleanor*
