

Roy Sellers

March 17, 1926 - December 19, 2004

Roy Sellers, son of the late Saul Sellers and Maybelle Zanders, was born March 17, 1926 in St. Stephen, South Carolina. God called him to his eternal reward on Sunday, December 19, 2004. Roy received his education in the St. Stephen Public School System. He met and married his high school sweetheart, the late Aglen Gamble. To this union one child was born, who also preceded him in death. Roy received the precious gift of the Holy Ghost after forty years of constant prayers by his wife. He was a member of the Jeremiah Temple Church where he served faithfully until illness confined him. Even through illness, he never gave up his faith in God. Whenever he was visited during his confinement, he would never fail to say, "God is good" and "Thank You Jesus". After receiving the Holy Ghost, his favorite saying was "I CAN SEE BETTER NOW THAN I HAVE BEFORE". His son-in-law did not think it robbery to continue to take care of him after the death of Virgie and moved him to New York where he could be close to him. He loved his son-in-law deeply. He will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him or came in contact with him. Loved by so many, those who will share great memories are; two brothers, Willie (Helen) of New York City, and James (Lucille) of South Carolina; his son-in-law, Mackey Segar of Bronx, New York; grandchildren, Sean, Lauren, Michael and Derrick; two sisters-in-law, Margaret Bradshaw of Bronx, New York and Sarah Sellers of Chester, Pennsylvania; two brothers-in-law, Bishop Elijah Ravenell and Lucious (Loretta) Gamble, both of St. Stephen, South Carolina; a special nephew and pastor, Bishop Jeremiah

Ravenell; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. In difficult times such as this, it is comforting to know that Jehovah assures us that he... "will swallow up death forever...and those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." May you draw comfort from these scriptures. Isaiah 25:6 and John 5:28,29.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##
