

ROYCE ANDRE BLACKWELL

September 7, 1955 - October 25, 2019

Royce Andre Blackwell (affectionately known to most of us as "Roy"), son of the late Robert T. Blackwell and Mary Ann Crosby, was born on September 7, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on October 25, 2019 after battling a lengthy illness.

Roy received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and was a graduate of the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute High School.

He was employed as a delivery driver for various companies including Maryland Messenger, Joffie Brothers, National Capital and also Leonard Paper from which he eventually retired.

Roy married the love of his life, Janet Murphy, on February 17, 1995. He was always a devoted husband, Father, Brother, Friend and an avid Ravens Fan.

He was well known for his sense of humor and his "telling like it is" statements. He loved life robustly and believed in living it to its fullest. He made numerous friends wherever he went and loved to frequent the casinos to try his luck at hitting the "Big One."

He will be missed by us all, especially his inseparable road dog and furry friend, "Payton."

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Janet Blackwell; two sons, Ramond Blackwell and Royce Blackwell, Jr.; daughter, Rachelle Blackwell; brother, Stephen Cosby; sister, Robin Allen; three brothers-in-law, Jeffrey Kane, Conrad Allen and James Murphy Jr; two sisters-in-law, Francine Kane and Belinda Murphy; niece, Danette Nelson; nephew, Micah Murphy; great-niece, Naya Nelson; great-nephew, Nyjay Nelson; a host of grandchildren, one great-grandchild, other beloved relatives and devoted friends.
