

Rubell L. Jones

November 23, 2018

On Friday, November 23, 2018, Rubell Livingston Jones affectionately known as "Granny, Mrs Ruby, Snookie" was called to be with our Lord. She is free of sickness and pain, and she won't have to cry any more.

Ruby Livingston Jones was born in the town of North, South Carolina to the late Rosea Hook-Livingston. She was raised in a Christian home and attended public schools in Orangeburg County.

At the age of 18, she moved to New York with her sister where she met Edward (Eddie) Leroy Jones. Ruby and Eddie moved to Baltimore, Maryland and was married on December 29, 1969. From their union they had one child.

Ruby worked at Pleasant Manor Nursing Home for over 30 years. She was a delegate in Union 1199E. She was a faithful member of Interfaith Christian Fellowship Church since 2001 where she loved serving as an usher, attending Chesapeake Bible College, and Bible Study. She also enjoyed what he called, "her Westerns."

She was helpful and giving - always made herself available to help many in any way she could. She was a great cook and the best sweet tea that people called "Mrs Ruby."

She was preceded in death by her husband, Edward Leroy Jones; mother, Rosea Hook-Livingston; brother, Anglish Livingston; sister, Evanner (Cat) Livingston-Williams; and a special niece, Deborah (Deb) Elaine Prince.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory: her daughter, Rosea Jones; grandson, Tyjai Jones; stepson, Anthony Mitchell; sister, Essie Mae Wade of Harlem, NY; goddaughter, Stacey Jefferson; three sisters-in-law, Ester Martin, Diane Brown and Patricia Jones; one brother-in-law, Jonathan Jones; special niece and nephew, Ethel MAe Pearson (Melvin) of Columbia, SC; Tommy Bernard Livingston (Beverly) of Petersburg, VA; and a host of other relatives and friends.
