

Rubie Carter

November 14, 1912 - May 6, 2005

Rubie Carter affectionately known as “Grandpa” was born November 14, 1912 to the late Zeak and Daisy Carter in Greenwood, Mississippi. He departed this life on May 6, 2005. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife Surether Carter whom he kept deep in his heart and memory until the end. Rubie was a hard working man and was employed as a steel laborer at Bethlehem Steel Shipyard. While working there, he and Surether found the time to raise 25 foster children. They also raised other family members, and one in particular; their granddaughter Vonderlia Holloway who was very dear to their hearts. They were given numerous awards and certificates for being good parents. Rubie was raised on a farm with five other brothers, Arthur (A.C.), Lee, Eddie, Booker-T and Clarence (Hub). He is the last surviving brother. He didn’t have a lot of education, but he was a smart businessman. He and his wife at one time owned a deli and a liqueur store. He loved pets, particularly dogs and had a few in his lifetime. He was the man around the house and kept a beautifully manicured lawn. People even policemen would stop to compliment him and get tips on lawn care. He also liked beautiful cars and clothes, and was always swell dressed or as the say “Sharp as a Tack”. He could also cook very well; and could make the perfect steak. Rubie was baptized into Jesus Christ in February 2005 at the Central Church of Christ in Baltimore. Brother Carter’s fellowship with the Saints was only for a short time, but he made so many friendships in the body. Rubie is survived by a granddaughter/daughter, sister, Vonderlia Holloway; one son from Chicago,

Roosevelt Carter; three daughters, Beatrice, Lorraine and Loretta (twins); one special nephew and his wife Buddy and Sonja Carter; numerous grandchildren, a sister-in-law, Mary Elizabeth Martin; a brother-in-law, Robert Lee Martin and a host of relatives and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends , I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." It is my hope that you will be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. He was such a loving and caring person. He cared about people and he cared about the earth , with his beautiful garden. He is in the minds and hearts of many people. But more importantly notice what hope Almighty God gives for our dead loved ones- "Many, many people of the earth that are dead and buried will wake up. Some of them will wake up to have life forever." These ones will "wake up" to a beautiful paradise earth in which there will be no more sickness, sorrow, death or pain.(Isaiah 33:24, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43)It is my hope that you will receive much strength and comfort from these divinely inspired promises.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
