

Ruby G. Young-Lee

November 19, 1950 - April 15, 2008

RUBY G. YOUNG-LEE, daughter of the late Millise White and Hastey Young, was born on November 19, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Tuesday, April 15, 2008, after a lengthy illness. Ruby received her education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore and completed several college courses in Criminal Justice at Sojourner Douglass College, also in Baltimore. Throughout her working career, Ruby was employed in diverse fields including: real estate development, child care, surgical technology, public works, recycling education and enforcement, and office administration. At the time of her death, Ruby was retired from the City of Baltimore with almost ten years of service. She will be remembered for her strong community activism, attending countless City Council meetings over the years, often voicing an unpopular opinion with conviction and authority. Prior to her illness, Ruby founded "Ruby's Recycling and Environmental Education, Inc.," and looked forward to operating her own business. Ruby married her high school sweetheart, the late Calvin Lee. From this union a daughter, Gwendolyn, the pride and joy of her life was born. Ruby was a faithful and active member of active of the Ark Church for many years until limited by her illness. She enjoyed reading "Our Daily Bread" and received great comfort, knowing that she would meet her Lord and Savior one day. Ruby will surely be missed by everyone who knew her, She was always willing to lend a helping hand and believed in the saying "Bring someone else up with you on your way to the top. Left to celebrate Ruby's homegoing are: her daughter, Dr. Gwendolyn R.

Lee; two sisters, Alberta White and Rosalee Thomas; brother, Earl Young; brother-in-law, Bishop William Thomas, Sr.; two aunts, Laurina Robinson and Geneva Council; uncle, Abie White; nieces, nephews, cousins, godchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends including her special "rug rats," Christopher and Nicholas.

Tribute Wall

“ Ruby G. Young-Lee

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I would like to offer my condolences to the family for the loss of your loved one. As Ms. Young-Lee recognized throughout her life, the Bible can encourage and give us hope in times of distress. The Bible provides hope for us and those we lose in death. One of those encouraging accounts is found at John 11:38-44. In this scripture, Jesus resurrected his friend Lazarus and rejoined him with his family and friends. In John 11:11-14, Jesus compared Lazarus' death to sleep. He was at rest in death until Jesus brought him back to life. This account gives us the hope that the resurrection hope is a reality and will occur again so that we will be reunited with our loved ones.##imported-begin##Yolanda F.##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Gwen, I am so sorry to hear about your mom. I understand all too well what you are going through at this time. I will be thinking of you. Your Mercy Sister,##imported-begin##Kim Sheridan##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, As each day goes by, the pain may subside, but the loss never leaves your heart and mind. May you find comfort from the promises found in God's Word, the Bible at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I offer my heartfelt condolences to the family of Ruby at this difficult time. A few months have gone past, but we never forget our loved ones no matter how much time passes, because we miss them so much. They are a part of us, and when we lose them it puts a big void in the family circle. Jehovah God did not give us this pain, and through the resurrection that he has made possible through his son Jesus, many will awaken from the sleep of death to everlasting life. John 5:28,29 May this hope be a comfort to you at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hello ! Lee's ! I would like to send my fellow feeling to you all in your recent circle life being broken. Today we all are affected by death, soon our heavenly father is going to make all things NEW as Rev 21:3-5 say.It is wonderful to know that soon death will be a thing of the PASS.I hope these few thoughts will be uplifting to read.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am sorry for your loss. May this scripture give you comfort. Revelation chapter 21:4, "and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." If you would like to know more about this hope from God's Word. Please, contact me via my email. Sincerely, C.Bain##imported-begin##C. Bain##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM