

Ruby Jackson

April 10, 1925 - April 30, 2023

Forever in Our Hearts

Beloved Mother, Grandmother,
Great and Great-Great Grandmother
Co-Worker, Friend

Ruby Cornelia Jackson was born on April 10, 1925 in Worcester, Massachusetts and was raised in Providence, Rhode Island. At the age of 22, she moved to New York where she worked in the garment district becoming an elite seamstress and supervisor of her department working there for the next 30 years. After a brief layoff, she began a new career in the financial industry working at the Bache, Halsey, Shields Brokerage firm where she became a lead clerk and had a stellar work history working for over 30 years without taking not one sick day and retiring at the age of 72.

She was the beloved mother of 4 children: Virginia, William, Levi and Lamont; 4 stepchildren: Anthony, Darell, Edward, and Denise; loving and supportive grandmother to 12: Montel, Bernadette, Simone, Donald, William III, Danielle, Kim, Sean, Levi Jr, Derek, Richard and Ashley; 41 great-grandkids and 23 great-great grandkids.

She lived a full life -- not sitting still for too long. While living in Atlanta, you could call her at home, but not be surprised if you could not reach her. She was always on the go. She loved to travel. And she LOVED to shop!! Thrift shopping, any kind of shopping. She was a crafter - sewing, knitting, crocheting, she did it all. She was known for her spirit and love of sharing all she knew with her family, friends, and all who would listen. She will truly be missed by many. We love you Ma, Grandma, Miss Ruby.

“ God looked around His garden and found an empty place
He then looked down upon the earth and saw Ms. Jackson's tired face
He put His arms around her and lifted her to rest God's garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best
He knew that she was suffering, He knew she was in pain
He knew that she would never get well on earth again
He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb
So he closed her weary eyes and whispered "Peace be thine"
It broke our hearts to lose her, but she did not go alone
For part of me went with her, the day God called her home
Her wings were ready, but our hearts were not Heaven has certainly gained another angel She won the hearts of everyone she met with her kind and generous spirit and always willing to help anyone Remember, death leaves a heartache that no one can heal
But love leaves a memory that no one can steal
You know grief is the ultimate price we pay for love and the more that we loved her, the heavier the grief.
So find that special place in your heart to tuck her away and carry your own special memories and fun times with her, because I now I will and me and her have had many fun times and adventures. She lovingly called me her daughter, (Ms. Pat) Sleep on Ms. Jackson and take your crown and rest. Love you.

To Levi, Tojo, Lamont and the rest of the family, may the love of family and friends strengthen and comfort you.
Lovingly and sorrowfully submitted,

Pat Johnson and Family
