

Ruby Minerva Lee

August 11, 1928 - December 29, 2022

Ruby Minerva Lee, daughter of George H. Bevans and Minerva Gaskins, was born August 11, 1928. She attended the Baltimore City Public Schools, after which she enrolled in Morgan State College.

A few years later, she was employed by Social Security Administration where she remained over three decades. During her tenure, she was an official tour guide with SSA.

In the mid 1960's, Ruby and her daughter Carla were baptized by Dr. Willard Clayton of Macedonia Baptist Church. She was eager to serve in any capacity. She then became a member of The Ladies Guild of Macedonia and later became a Deaconess for the church. Ruby became a member of The Top Ladies of Distinctions (TLOD). She actively participated in the activities of The Silver Threads of Macedonia Baptist Church.

Left to mourn her passing are; her daughter Carla A. Johnson, grandsons, Kenith D. Walker, Jr., and Theodore Turner; grandchildren; Montria J. Walker, Khai D. Walker, and Kharrington D. Walker; nephews, Stanford E. Burke, Alan V Poulson and Bishop Durant K. Harvin; nieces, Cynthia L. Harvin and Marki Dicken; a loving Godchild, Breiona; and Ruby's adopted three young women from Macedonia namely, Nancy, Linda and Louise.

Our days will be empty; however , our hearts and minds will be full of great memories.
