

Ruby Lee Brown

March 9, 1932 - June 1, 2004

In Rocky Mount, North Carolina, on March 9, 1932, God exhaled and gave life to Ruby Lee Cooper, daughter of Lizzie and Bruce Cooper. God blessed Ruby's inner soul with jewels and blessing that she let shine and passed on to others. Her smile was pleasant and energetic. Her kind heart blossomed with friendship. Her generosity flowed with welcomed arms for all. Ruby's pleasant attitude shined with rays of love and enjoyment. She was a "people magnet." Always sharing a part of her self, Ruby provided nourishing strength to others. She fed any one, which ensured the build of their body strength and with her kindness plus words of wisdom she provided strength to the inner soul. As God slowly inhaled his breath while calling Ruby back to him on June 1, 2004, she provided to all a true blessing to behold. FAITH. Keeping her memory alive over the years to come will be: her children, Nita (Charles) Taylor, Tina Seward; one very loving sister, Daisy Nolley; devoted companion, Harrison Morten; grandchildren; Erik Seward, Dawong and Jennifer Tyler, Charles and Tracey Taylor; great-grandchildren; Sean and Charles III, SACHE' and Cache, Renee and Alicia; nieces and nephews; Vivian (Larry) Smith, David (Gerri), and Bryan Nolley; special sons, Pete, Bobby, Ronnie, and Warren; and a host of family and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
