

Ruby Lee Cathey

January 16, 1924 - January 15, 2004

Ruby Lee Cathey, daughter of Grady and Cleora Long, was born Ruby Lee Long on January 16, 1924 in Durham, North Carolina. She was called home to be with the Lord on Thursday, January 15, 2004 after a long illness. Ruby graduated from Hillside High School, Durham, North Carolina in 1941. She was awarded as most outstanding English student in her senior class. In December 1942 she married Roy Norman Cathey, who preceded her in death on June 4, 1998. Soon after their marriage Roy and Ruby moved to Baltimore, Maryland. In earlier years Ruby was a member of Leadenhall Baptist Church and later became a member of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church until her illness prevented her from attending church. Around 1949, Ruby gained employment with Comfort Springs Corporation until her illness prevented her from working. Her favorite pastimes before her illness were reading and going to the movies. Ruby was a quiet and very polite person. To know her was to love her. She was a wonderful and generous person towards her family, friends and others. Ruby leaves to cherish her memory: one son, Roy Norman Cathey, Jr.; grandson, Roy Norman Cathey, III; two sisters, Juanita Sanders of Durham, N.C. and Mable Jackson of Baltimore, Md.; three sisters-in-law, Josephine Hicks of Baltimore, Md., Eliza Cathey of Charlotte, N.C. and Emma Long of Durham, N.C.; two brothers-in-law, Thomas Sanders of Durham, N.C. and Herman Jackson of Baltimore, Md.; two special friends, Brenda Walker and Cheryl Carey; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear family, Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. May you find comfort in 1 Corinthians 15:26 where Almighty God promises that he is going to get rid of the last enemy which is death. Also the scripture at Acts 24:15 where we are promised the hope of a resurrection.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I'd like to express my deepest sympathy. Death is difficult to deal with, but it's nice to know that Almighty God holds out a hope for us. He promises at Daniel 12:2 that "...there will be many of those asleep in the ground...who will wake up..." So, it's comforting to know that there's a hope to see our dead loved ones again.##imported-begin##Sandy Sloane##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. Unfortunately many of us have had to experience sadness and grief due to the loss of a loved one. May you find comfort from this hope found at Acts 24:15. "and I have hope toward God...that there is going to be a resurrection..."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
