

Ruby Lorraine Christopher

September 14, 1919 - December 9, 2001

Ruby Lorraine Christopher, youngest daughter of the late Boyd and Emma Cheatham, was born on September 14, 1919 in Norfolk, Virginia. She departed this life on December 9, 2001 after a brief illness. Educated in Baltimore, Maryland, she attended Morgan State College and Johns Hopkins School of Nursing. The youngest of four, she had two sisters, the late Serena Burman and one living sister, Mrs. Lillie Mae Deberry, and one brother, the late John Cheatham. In 1945, she met and married the late William R. Christopher. Out of that union eight children were born; Charles Cheatham, James Christopher, Gwendolyn Christopher, Betty McCoy, the late William Christopher III, Roland Christopher, George Christopher and Walter Christopher. After retirement from the city in 1983, she then went to work for a family law office until 1988, when she stopped work to stay home to take care of her sick husband. Ruby stayed active by traveling, working on family reunion plans and Atlantic City trips until her health failed her. She leaves to mourn: seven children; one sister, Mrs. Lillie Mae Deberry; sixteen grandchildren, David, Charles Jr., Eugene, Angelo, Patricia, Anthony, John, Betty, Denise, Christina, Vashon, Walter Jr., Ashley, Tyneisha, Sandra and Lewis; and multitude of great-grandchildren.
