“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in Jehovah the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ *I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Ruby Mae Harper. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises one day will no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I wish to express my deepest sympathy to the family at this difficult time. Losing a loved one is truly devastating, and only our loving heavenly father knows the extent of your sorrow. One day he promises that he will wipe all tears away, and sickness and death will be no more. Isaiah 25:8. he never desired such pain for us; he only desires happiness for his earthly children. His purpose to have a paradise earth restored will one day come to pass, because the whole world will be like the Garden of Eden, and no resident will say, "I am sick. Isaiah 33:24, 2nd Peter 3:13. One day your loved one will awake from the sleep of death, because all those in the memorial tombs will indeed hear Jesus's voice and come out. May these beautiful promises from Jehovah, the God who cannot lie, bring comfort to you and your loved ones in the days ahead.
