“ My fondest memories of my grandmother as a child was spending summers and weekends at her house. With each visit, she would give my sister and me 50 cents to go to the corner store to buy ice cream for all of us – her favorite was butter pecan. I recall the many times we went shopping – so much fun. I loved visiting my grandmother because she was easy to talk with during my teenage years as she always gave me the best advice. We had many slumber parties at grandma’s house. As I grew into adulthood, we maintained a close relationship – many times going to lunch, dinner or just going to get a manicure/pedicure. Recently, I would visit her, occasionally, during my lunch break to converse and laugh about silly things from the past. She would tell others that this is my granddaughter, who’s also like a daughter. She had a heart of gold that shined through her beautiful smile. She was what I aspire to be as I get older. Although I’m going to miss the yearly holiday dinners our family enjoyed at her home with grandma’s warm smile greeting us all, I’m thankful for the fond memories she left – which is truly a treasure.

“ Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal... A human life is a story told by God, and God's pen ran dry of ink for the life of this Angel on earth. Well done, Well done. Grandma Ruby was everyone's Grandmother... she embraced you with her smile and she comforted you with her never wavering gentle voice. I have endless memories of her kindness and love towards me and my family - our eyes beheld a living Angel on earth and now she is with her King, youthful and vibrant. "Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the Lord have delivered thee into mine hand..." 1 Samuel 24:10 All our love to the Richburg family.

Growing up Khrissy, Corey, Tera, Melvina, Marcellus, Randy and myself would spend the night at Grandma's house and she'd take us to Food Lion to purchase food for our slumber party. “ To the Richburg family,
I am so sorry to hear about the passing of Mrs. Richburg. Look to Jehovah, the God of all comfort (2Corinthians1:3-4), to sustain you during this difficult time. May you find solace in the wonderful hope of a future resurrection of our loved ones to a paradise earth at John5:28-29. With deepest sympathy.

“ Grandma Ruby was a gentle soul. Whenever you had a bad day or just needed a word of encouragement, she was always there for you. My most fondest memory of her was during her 80th Birthday Party. I had taken her out to lunch and then to a movie while the family decorated the house for her surprise party. I remember the look on her face when we walked in the door and everyone was there to yell "Surprise". The last time I saw her in July 2013 we laughed about that day and how she never thought that anyone could ever surprise her in her own home and how she was happily surprised that we were able to pull it off. She was more than a Grandmother, she was my friend, a confidant and one of the kindest and most generous people that I have ever known. I can only hope that I live an equally honorable life. She will be eternally missed and forever in my heart.

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family. When someone we love dies its very painful. But the Bible talks about God doing away with pain at Rev 21:4. May the God of comfort provide solace to your family at this time.
