

Ruddle J. Williams

May 14, 1926 - February 17, 2005

Ruddle J. Davis-Williams, daughter of Robert H. and Della Francis Davis, was born on May 14, 1926 in North Carolina. She departed this life on February 17, 2005 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the North Carolina school system. Ruddle was dedicated to the children of her surroundings both family and in her chosen occupation which was a school server for the Baltimore City Public School System. Ruddle's sole purpose in life was to live her life for her children and grandchildren. No one ever came before her family in which she was the truest of matriarchs. Married to Lawrence B. Williams, Sgt. in the United States Army until he was called home; this union produced three daughters, Pat, Paula and Melinda. Ruddle was the type of person where it only took one meeting with her and you could be assured that she'd be a memory forever. She leaves to mourn: three daughters, Pat Richardson, Paula Brown and Melinda Hughes; one son-in-law, Paul Brown; four granddaughters, Kena Richardson-Hodge, Lauren Laws, Bobbi Hughes and Robin Hughes; six grandsons, Gerqoine Brown, Corey Richardson, RaShawn Saunders, Lance Franklin, Kaiwan Brown and Robert Hughes III; one great-granddaughter, Brianna Brown; two great-grandsons, Jourdin Avery Brown and Camren DeShawn Richardson; one devoted nephew, Johnny Davis; god-grandson, Gary Wallace; and a host of other relatives.

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The Bible holds out promises that we can put our complete faith and trust in. One such promise is found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 where we are told that the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. The Bible also promises that our loved ones will live again by means of a resurrection (John 5:28, 29). However, when they are resurrected they will not live in conditions that they previously lived in. The earth will eventually be transformed into a paradise with no sicknesses, war, crime etc. Please read these promises for yourself at Revelation 21:3, 4; Psalm 37:10, 11; Isaiah 2:4. May you put faith and trust in these promises because that is a wonderful hope to look forward to. Again, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
