

Rudolph Eugene Brown

May 2, 1963 - October 21, 2017

Our beloved Rudolph Eugene Brown, 54, of Richmond, Virginia was called home to have eternal peace on October 21, 2017. He was born May 2, 1963 in Richmond, Virginia to the late Annie Mae and Horace Eugene Brown. He was predeceased by his sister, Joyce Epps.

At a young age, he accepted Christ and began his spiritual journey with Moore Street Missionary Baptist Church and later transferred his membership to Faith Holy AME Zion and served as a usher. He attended the Richmond Public School system.

Gene as he was affectionately known married his dear friend, Frederica. He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and dear friend.

He brought laughter and joy to everyone who graced his presence. He had a tremendously big heart and to know him was truly to love him. Rudolph enjoyed spending time with his family. He was a caring person that was very family involved He always wanted to make everyone happy and comfortable. God also blessed Rudolph with a talent for fixing cars.

He is survived by his loving wife, Frederica Brown; daughter, Marquana Williams (Kenneth); three sons, Rudolph Brown Jr., Dominic (Erica) and Fredrelle Randolph; twelve grandchildren; six sisters, Carolyn Fields, Edna

Brown, Lena Mayfield, Margaret Williams (Reginald), Catherine Edwards and Ellen Brown (Ernest); a host of nieces, nephews, cousins; other relatives and friends.

There Is A Path

There is a path we each must trod upon the road of life, that leads us to our destiny of happiness and strife.

There is a path we each must choose, a cross we each must bear, but no one has to walk alone because our God always there!
