

Rudolph Julius Deans

April 8, 1935 - April 7, 2017

RUDOLPH JULIUS DEANS, son of the late Pecola and Thomas Williams Deans was born on April 8, 1935 in Rocky Mountain, North Carolina.

Rudolph affectionately known to his family and friends as “Rudy”, “Daddy” and “Granddaddy”, was educated in the North Carolina School System. Rudy moved to Baltimore, Maryland in the 1950's.

He met the love of her life, Carrie Ellena Taylor and in December 1969 they were married. From this union Thomas Rudolph Deans was born.

Carrie preceded Ruth in Death.

Rudy was an exceptional man, taking on the responsibility of helping Ellena to raise eight children by a previous union. Four of them preceded him in death; John Taylor, Wanda Bartley, Wallace Dodd III and Kenneth Dodd.

Rudy was a hard worker. For a short time he was employed by Welsh Construction as a laborer. He had a few other jobs before his employment with Baltimore City as a truck driver. He transferred to the Bridge Division until he retired. After retirement, he still continued to do odd jobs and painting houses.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his son, Thomas R. Deans; four step-daughter, Roberta Taylor, Darlene Johnson, Linda Haskins and Kimberleigh Kornegay, all of Baltimore; son-in-law, Ralph Kornegay Sr.; three daughters-in-law, Sharron Taylor, Dolphine Dodd and Beatrice Dodd; two sisters, Doris Deans and Regina Deans, both of North Carolina; three foster children, Bessie Bowers, James and Preston Collins; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great great grandchildren; three special friends, Deborah Cruse-Smith, Harry Smith and Doris Morton; and other relatives and friends.
