He was a faithful friend to his true friends. He was an eccentric who loved birds and animals, especially cats. He was a strong quiet kind man. And through the many years of pain he was never heard to complain. He will be truly missed.

He leaves to mourn: one son, Rudolph (Pete) Dixon; a sister, Audrey Brown; two granddaughters, Joy Dixon and Jasmine Dixon; one grandson, Jonathan Dixon; many nephews and nieces and a host of other relatives and friends and one beloved.
