

Rudolph Peckoo

December 21, 1929 - December 2, 2005

MR. RUDOLPH PECKOO, son of the late William and Zella Peckoo, was born December 21, 1929 in Jamaica, West Indies. He departed this life on December 2, 2005 after a brief illness. He grew up and was educated in Jamaica where he met Enid Williams and from their union had four children, Devonne (Sabrina), Dave, Dean (Boone) and the late Karlene Peckoo. As a young man he worked in a sugar refinery company as a sugar boiler. Soon after, he became a store owner where he enjoyed greeting and meeting people. In 1980 he came to Baltimore, Maryland to be with his children. Being with his family was very important to him. He enjoyed birthdays and Christmas gatherings. As a father and grandfather he was very proud of their accomplishments. Rudolph enjoyed fishing, cooking and playing cricket. He was a fun-loving man who was never embarrassed to share his advice or candid opinion. Those who knew him best loved to be in his presence and he enjoyed theirs. Of all his hobbies and interests, family was the most important. He encouraged us to "always be kind to one another". His last year was spent in Future Care Nursing Home, where he became ill and was transferred to Northwest Hospital in Randallstown, Maryland where he succumbed to his illness. Rudolph leaves to cherish his memory: his three children, daughter, Devonne Friday and two sons, Dave and Dean Peckoo; mother of his children, Enid Williams-Costley; one son-in-law, Jonathan Friday; one daughter-in-law, Robin Peckoo, all of Baltimore, Maryland; one brother, Isaac Peckoo of Jamaica; two sisters, Mezrena Brown and Mavis Wiggam; one brother-in-law, Burton Brown, all of Vera Beach, Florida; four granddaughters, Star Friday-Mitchell, Logan Peckoo, India and Asjah Stuckey; two grandsons, Devin Peckoo and John Mitchell Jr.; three great-granddaughters, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My condolences on the loss of Mr. Peckoo. I would like to offer you a message of comfort, found at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May this promise from our Heavenly Father strengthen you in your time of mourning.##imported-begin##D. Spann##imported-end##

“ My sincere sympathy to the Adolfo family. Just a few words of encouragement. Almighty God said, "I-I myself am the One that is comforting you people", Isaiah 51:12. While you thinking of the times you had with your beloved one, ponder over the comfort and promises from Almighty God to help ease your pain.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
