

Rudolph Duron Smith Sr.

October 6, 1972 - April 17, 2021

Rudolph Duron Smith Sr., son of Rudolph and Shirley Ann Smith, was born October 6, 1972 in Baltimore, Md. God dispatched an angel from heaven to receive his beloved son on April 17, 2021.

Rudolph received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools System. He attended Southwestern High School. From there, he earned his G.E.D.. At an early age, he was employed with Charlestown Retirement Home. He then worked briefly for Baltimore City Public Works. His most recent job was Belair Produce and home improvement with Franqui Enterprise, LLC.

Rudolph also known as "DOG", was loved by many. He was a loving son, brother, father, and loyal friend to all those around him. One important priority for him was to mend relationships and build strong bonds within his family. He would go above and beyond to provide and protect all those around them. Also, he would spend time helping out at the candy store "Ambitionsweettreatz". He enjoyed playing with his kids and formed many bonds with the children in his neighborhood. He loved music, sports, partying, and being "erky". His favorite sports teams were the "Ravens" and "Lakers".

He was preceded in death by his parents Shirley Ann and Randolph Smith, and uncle Rudolph Bolden, He leaves to mourn his son Rudolph Smith Jr., Daughter Destinie'Smith, granddaughter N'rhiyah Smith, Two brothers Jemaine

Smith (Chenelle) and Randolph Smith (Cassandra). Seven sisters; Tanya Spence, Christine, Rose, Muriel, Jacqueline, Kimmie, and Kennett, Nieces Keairia, Jasmine, Kayla, Jayla, Taylor, and Ava. One Nephew Kamryn.

Two Goddaughters Sheniera, and Sierra, Children he considered as his own Lil. Sharda, Lil Arnold (Fat-Fat) and Nardine and Momma cake, three sister friends Geanna and Nakisha and Shadana, close friend Tina Jackson and a host of nieces nephews, cousins, family and friends.
