

Ruffet W. Cousar

August 27, 1943 - September 11, 2004

Ruffet W. Cousar, son of the late Wesley Carolina and Mary Wells Cousar, was born August 29, 1942, in Lynchburg, South Carolina. He departed this life September 11, 2004. In 1962, he completed his education, graduated from Eastern High School in Sumter, South Carolina, and shortly thereafter, relocated to Baltimore, Maryland. After relocating, Rufus worked as a mechanic apprentice for a brief period of time at Westport Exxon, he later explored a short-lived career in the field of carpentry in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. In search of fulfilling a desire and love for the profession of automotive mechanics and services, Rufus returned to Westport Exxon until the final closing of its doors; it was this event that led this young entrepreneur to establish the business we know today as Rufus Service Station in Cherry Hill. As a youth, he attended Mt. Sinai A. M. E. Church, Lynchburg, South Carolina, and recently rededicated his life to Christ and has been faithfully attending and growing spiritually at Hemingway A. M.E. Church, Baltimore, Maryland. Rufus loved life and loved people' he was affectionately described by many as a gentle, loving, caring, and selfless individual who was indeed loved by all –family, friends and importantly, the Cherry Hill community of Baltimore, he was a stranger to no man and made numerous friends wherever he went. Everyone who knew him will sadly and sincerely miss him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man and leaves to mourn his passing and cherish his memory: Three daughters, Linda (Luke) McCray, Olanta, South Carolina, Tarah (R J) Johnson, Charleston, South Carolina, and

Lisa Nichols, Baltimore, Maryland; three sons, Gerald (Cynthia) Couser, Kevin (Tessa) Couser, and Darrell Couser-Farrar, Baltimore, Maryland; ten grandchildren, Luke Jr., Brandon , Ashley, Tavon, Chavis, Shavon, Kevin, Alexis, Bishop and Rufus; two sisters, Betty (Willie B.) Brown and Dianne (Ronnie) Jackson, Baltimore, Maryland; two brothers, Carolina Cousar, Jr., and Bennie Thomas (Carolyn), Baltimore, Maryland; ten aunts, four uncles, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
