“ To: Wanda and Family

I am sorry to hear about loss of your beloved Father. Just know he is in better place with our Heavenly Father. It's good to know that God has prepared a place for us after we leave this temporary home. Wanda, you were the best daughter any father could have had, you were with father every step of the way. I know he is proud of you. I will continue to pray for you and your family. Keep your hand in God's hand and all will be alright. Cherish very moment you had with Mr. Clark. Just know your will see him again. May God continue bless you.
